As in all sports, win, lose, or draw, the thrill and the joy is playing the game.

Power Soccer is the most exciting sport for power wheelchair users. This extremely competitive sport has been ongoing for over 18 years, but is just exploding here in the the United States.

Just recently representatives and teams came from all over the world to unify rules so that all teams across the globe could play internationally. These countries include Canada, Japan, Denmark, France, Portugal, South Korea, Great Britain and Turkey.

Power Soccer is a team sport played by individuals with various disabilities. It is unisex by design, and male and female participants are often on the same team, as well as opposing sides. The game is usually played in a gymnasium or on a regulation basketball court. Occasionally there are outdoor parking lot competitions. Two teams of 4 power chair users attack, defend, and maneuver a 13 inch soccer ball in an attempt to score points on a goal. The game is similar to the nonstop action seen in a typical indoor soccer game.

In time-honored tradition of quad rugby, Power Soccer is a true dynamic development for power wheelchair users. This action packed team sport combines the skill of the wheelchair user with the speed and power of the chair itself, to participate in an extremely challenging game very similar to soccer. Power Soccer is the first competitive team sport designed and developed specifically for power wheelchair users. These participants include persons with quadriplegia, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, head trauma, stroke and other disabilities. The will to win, the competitive spirit of an athlete is in no way limited or diminished because of confinement to a wheelchair.
